REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A convention of the republican party of the state of Wisconsin will be held at Madison on Wednesday, April 30, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of electing four delegates and four alternates from the state at large to the national convention to be held at Chicago, June 3, 1884, to nominate the electoral ticket, to select a republican state central committee, to act upon the proposition of the state central committee as to the change of basis of representation in future conventions, and to transact such other business as may be brought before the convention. Each senatorial and assembly district is entitled to two delegates to the convention.

All citizens are invited to co-operate in the election of delegates to the convention, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor protecting and extending home industries without discrimination in favor of any class or interest, giving free popular education to the masses, securing free suffrage and honest counting of ballots and effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who are willing to support the nominees of the national republican convention.

The republicans of the various congressional districts shall have the option of electing their delegates at separate popular delegate conventions, held in the congressional districts at any time within the fifteen days next prior to the meeting of the state convention, or by subdivisions of the state convention into district conventions; and such delegates shall be chosen in the latter method if not elected previous to the meeting of the state convention. All district delegates shall be accredited by the officers of such district conventions.

It having been the practice heretofore in this state to select district delegates by subdivisions of the state convention into district conventions, it is advised by this committee that that method of selecting delegates and electors be continued.

The Carpenter jury are expected to disagree. The testimony is all in, and that of the prosecution is very weak.

The Ohio house of representatives has passed a bill prohibiting "future" deals in stocks and provisions. The penalty has been fixed at from $50 to $1,000.

President Arthur keeps on dining congressmen in the grandest style ever known at the white house. Congress will soon begin to think he should be renominated. A white house dinner puts a man in a very good humor.

It has been suggested that the great trouble with the democratic party is "the foot-and-mouth disease." It has a bad disease of the mouth for some time, but it seems to be pretty swift on foot when it takes to the woods after a national campaign.

A farmer writing under the date of March 18, from Jerauel county, Dakota, tells the Gazette that "the weather is beautiful, and seeding progressing nicely." The land of blizzards seems to be more timely with its spring season than Wisconsin.

A proposition is talked of to establish a military school west of the Mississippi river for the training of Indians. Indians shoot too well already, and they generally shoot the wrong man. It would be better to train them to work for their own living and thus decrease the expenditures of the government.

There does not seem to be any limit to the lesire to hear Bob Ingersoll lecture. He delivered his lecture on "Orthodoxy" at the Central Music hall, Chicago, on Wednesday evening, and the great room was densely packed with as brilliant an audience as ever assembled in that hall. He can command any price he pleases and can fill the largest hall in the country.

A bill has been introduced in the senate authorizing the secretary of the navy to offer a reward of $25,000 for rescuing or ascertaining the fate of the Greely party. The sympathy of congress works very slow in this matter. The Greely party may starve and become buried under everlasting snow and ice before congress does a practical thing in sending relief.

A correspondent writing to the Chicago Journal, seems to think that Blaine couldn't be beaten for the presidency because there is luck in the name of James. He calls attention to the fact that nobody was ever beaten for the presidency who bore that charmed name. James Madison, James Monroe, James K. Polk, James Buchanan and James A Garfield were all elected.

All the fools who crave for notoriety are not yet dead. Captain Traynor, of Bath, Maine, proposes to make an attempt to cross the Atlantic in a dory, seventeen feet long and five feet wide. He will row the boat the entire distance. His only companion will be a cat, and his only diet oat meal and milk. He proposes to start on the 10th of June, reach England September 1.

A word for Sherman from the Burlington Hawkeye: "There are some very timid people who are already dreadfully frightened at the mention of General Sherman's name as a presidential candidate, because his son is a priest and his wife is a Catholic. Not a man of you had a word to say about General Sherman's relations to the church of Rome when he was knocking the stuffing out of the rebellion. And he is just as good and loyal a citizen to day as he was then, even though he wear a hair shirt and pray with beads."

The president of the United States receives $50,000 a year, and does more hard work than all the royalty in Europe combined. The president of the French republic has $120,000 a year, and he is allowed $32,000 for household expenses, while Queen Victoria has $1,818,800 a year, not counting the revenue of the Duchy of Lancaster, which amounts to a cool $175,000 a year. The Prince of Wales gets $175,000 a year, and the royal family has other annuities amounting to $660,000. The French and English pay for "show," and the Americans pay for service.

Every northern republican will be exceedingly glad to learn that Robert Smalls has been elected to congress from the Seventh district of South Carolina, to fill the unexpired term of E. W. M. Mackey, recently deceased. It is well worth paying a little attention to the life and character of this remarkable colored man. Smalls was born a slave in South Carolina in 1839, and of course never attended school. But as he approached manhood, he stole a little time, which he devoted to study. His master put him on one of the vessels in the Charleston harbor and on that he worked as a rigger. He afterwards became a good pilot on the coast, and when the war broke out he was put on the confederate steamer "Planter" plying in the Charleston harbor as a transport. In May, 1862, he saw an opportunity to turn the Planter over to the Union forces, and accordingly he led his engineer into the secret, and the steamer was safely taken over the Charleston bar and delivered to the United States forces. He afterwards served as pilot on the monitor "Keokuk" on the attack on Fort Sumter. He finally became a major general of state troops, and was elected to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth congresses. He is an excellent speaker, and when serving his first term in congress he was counted one of the best debaters in the house.

NATIONAL POLITICS.

Notes of Preparation for the Political Fray.

Rhode Island Democrats Try Twice Before They Get a Candidate---Pennsylvania Primaries---Conkling for Grant.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20.—Delegates to the Republican state convention were elected by senatorial and representative district conventions. The principal fight was made by Quay, Senator Cameron's representative, for the control of the delegation, and he is claiming two-thirds of it. In several of the conventions resolutions for Blaine were adopted, but in the majority no instructions were attempted. Quay is working hard for Arthur, but in order to secure any national delegates at all was obliged to compromise, and the consequence is that he will secure only about four delegates. So far as heard from, all the county conventions throughout the state have pronounced for Blaine, and, unless some peculiar arguments are used, upward of fifty out of the sixty delegates from this state will go to Chicago as pronounced Blaine men. The state convention will choose six delegates-at-large. As it will be overwhelmingly a Blaine convention, there is no reason why these six delegates should not be for Blaine. It is conceded that Philadelphia will be allowed two of the six, and the machine managers have fixed upon James McManes and Hamilton Disston as the names to be presented. This is a compromise. McManes led the Blaine revolt four years ago.

Grant Not for Arthur.

CHICAGO, March 20.—"Gen. Grant is not for Arthur for president," said ex-United States J. B. Chaffee, of Colorado, to a reporter. "He is not mixing up in politics, but from what I have heard him say I think that he prefers Logan of all the names that have so far been mentioned. Logan served under him, and he was a good soldier. I have just come from New York. The state is not for Arthur, as far as I can see and learn. I am not in politics, but I hear some things. The district conventions to select delegates to the national convention are just commencing to be held, and they seem to be anti-Arthur. Things are badly mixed politically in New York, and while they are bad in the Republican party they appear to be infinitely worse among the Democrats. No, sir, the silver state can never be for Arthur. Colorado may fall in line after the convention if Arthur is nominated, but the delegation to Chicago I think will be for Logan. I am going to Denver, but political matters have little concern for me now. I am engaged in mining and attending wholly to my private business."

In the Interests of Harmony.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Considerable political significance is attached to the visit here at this time of Editor McClure. He has given a dinner at which speaker Carlisle, Mr. Morrison and Editor Watterson were present. The disagreement in the Democratic party on the tariff question was mentioned, and Mr. McClure called attention to the efforts of certain Democrats to read out of the party all members who were not willing to support the Morrison bill. Both Mr. Carlisle and Mr. Morrison asserted that if it was being done, it was done without their their knowledge, and they both asserted their disapproval of it. Then Mr. McClure gave a breakfast, at which Mr. Randall, Mr. Carter, Mr. Boyle and Mr. Mutchler were present. He reported the result of his conference with Messrs. Carlisle and Morrison, and from the temper now it is evident that a better feeling prevails. It is highly probable that the extremests of both factions will be relegated to the rear, and that conservatives will take possession of the Democratic councils.

Rhode Island Democrats.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 20.—The Democratic state convention met here and was in session five hours, during which there was much stormy discussion. George H. Corliss, the noted engine builder, and a Republican, was nominated for governor. This created a row, as some wanted a regular Democrat or nothing, whereas Corliss is a man of the people, designed to defeat the Republicans who hold the state tightly. Mr. Corliss refused to accept the nomination, and Mr. Thomas W. Segar, of Westerly, R. I., was finally nominated, and Col. Amasa Sprague for lieutenant governor. The national delegates elected are said to favor Tilden, but are not pledged yet. During the discussion on the national delegates many bitter things were said regarding the raising of money to pay the poll taxes of the young Democracy. The party is very enthusiastic, and expect to poll the biggest Democratic vote on record in Rhode Island.

What Conkling Wants.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Mr. Belford, who is supposed to know a good deal about Roscoe Conkling, was asked by a Star reporter what were Mr. Conkling's presidential ideas. He said: "I don't like to talk about Mr. Conkling's differences with Mr. Arthur, but I will say this: The man Mr. Conkling favors for the nomination is Gen. Grant. He thinks that Grant is the best and most available man in the Republican party. But if Grant cannot get it, and Mr. Blaine is nominated by the Chicago convention, Mr. Conkling will enter vigorously and earnestly into the campaign and do all he can to secure his election. As to Mr. Arthur, I don't want to talk on that subject. If Blaine is nominated, Conkling will support him. He will work for Grant or for Blaine if he is nominated."

Beecher as a Delegate.

NEW YORK, March 20.—There is a rumor in circulation that Mr. Beecher is to be a delegate to the national convention of the Republican party at Chicago, and The Times correspondent called upon the Plymouth pastor to see what truth there was in the rumor. Mr. Beecher declined to say anything on the subject of his being a possible delegate, but in the course of a desultory conversation said: "I could name a ticket for the Democracy that would draw thousands upon thousands of votes from the Republican ranks and carry the country without doubt. I am not going to do it, though." He refused to name the ticket, but the general inference is that he had reference to Mr. Tilden as its head.

Mahone's Resignation Wanted.

RICHMOND, Va., March 20.—The general assembly closed an extended session and adjourned sine die. H. G. Moffett, Jr., was elected railroad commissioner. The appropriation bill provides for the investment of surplus funds in the treasury, not exceeding $160,000 a month, in Riddleberger bonds, to meet the interest on the whole state debt when funded. The senate instructed the clerk to send the president of the United States senate a copy of the resolution requesting Senator Mahone to resign, and ask that the resolution be read in the senate.

The Maine Greenbackers.

PORTLAND, Me., March 20.—Present indications are that two different sets of delegates from this state will claim admission to the national convention of the Greenback Labor party at Indianapolis, May 28. The Solon Chase Greenbackers will elect a delegation at their state convention to be held April 30, while the other wing will choose delegates at its state convention April 21.

Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, March 20.—In the house there was a rush of remonstrances against the passage of house bill No. 20 to tax church property, signed by 4,000 citizens of Dubuque, Baker, Gilliland, Rice, Tittle and Russell. Committees reported on about forty bills, among them an adverse report on the Ancient Order of United Workmen bill, and a favorable report on the permanent location of the supreme court at Des Moines. The bill on second reading, by Miles, for an act relating to a change of the place of trial in civil actions, amending section 2,530 of the code of Iowa, occupied a large part of the afternoon, followed by its passage.

In the senate, the committee on ways and means reported favorably on a bill making provision for increasing the facilities in giving official bonds. The bill providing for the appointment of state veterinary surgeon was passed. Sutton reported, recommending that the sum of $200,000 be appropriated to increase the facilities for the insane. Senate bill No. 188, relating to special assessments in cities and towns, was passed. Glass called up senate bill No. 20, an act relating to the taxing of certain church property, and it was passed. Graves presented a remonstrance from the Catholics of Dubuque against the passage of the bill. Bills stated that he had been accused of securing the passage of this bill under false pretenses. He claimed that there was no ground for such accusation. It was simply a fight against the bill under the cover and pretense that their religion is attacked, an assumption entirely false and without just grounds. The bill was ordered engrossed.

More Trouble in the Coal Region.

PITTSBURG, March 20.—The affairs among the miners in the third pool have taken a new turn. The miners employed at the Cliff mine have heretofore been working at a reduction, but notwithstanding this fact, the company has drawn up an article and presented it to the miners for their signature, in which they are required to waive all laws and statutes in regard to mines and also the right to a check weighman, if they wish to continue at work for that company. This was an unlooked-for requirement, and the miners refused to sign the article. The men were threatened with eviction upon their refusal to sign, and at Coal Bluff one family has already been evicted. Several of the miners are in the city in consultation with the miners' attorney, but as yet it is not known what action will be taken in the matter. President Costello visited the mine, and is looking into the trouble. No cause can be assigned for this action on the part of the company.

Said He Had Ruined Her.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Ferdinand Braun, a prominent furniture manufacturer, was married to a beautiful Harlem lady. Just as the couple were about stepping into their carriage a young girl from the shadows of the house, grasped the groom, and began to scream, attracting a large crowd. The police came up and arrested the girl. At the station-house she gave her name as Frida Stadler, and said Braun had promised to marry her while she was a servant in his house. Braun said the girl was crazy, and departed with his wife. The girl afterward attempted suicide by drinking oxalic acid. Braun has disappeared, but on his return something of a sensation is looked for.

An Item for Bismarck.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20.—The heaviest lot of hogs ever slaughtered in New Jersey was slaughtered at Wrightstown, N. J., amid the clangor of a brass band, the salvos of artillery and the shouts of a thousand people. The twenty-three hogs when hung up averaged 818 pounds each, the lightest weighing 630 pounds and the heaviest 1,050 pounds. The owner of the animals, Mr. D. Taylor Downey, is entitled to the gold medal recently offered for the heaviest pen of hogs in the state. For three months the pigs have not been able to stand on their feet. The pigs have been sold for $0.18 a hundred weight, which would make the pen yield $1,729.23. The animals were eighteen months old. They are destined for a whaling voyage.

Knocked Out on a Foul.

NEW YORK, March 20.—At Clarendon hall Al Powers, of Brooklyn, and Pat Sullivan, of New York, had a glove contest of four rounds. Queensbury rules, for $250. Sullivan, who is eight pounds heavier than Powers, rushed the latter all over the stage, inflicting several palpably foul blows, which the referee declined to notice. After Sullivan had struck and jumped upon Powers several time while down, the referee made the remarkable decision that Powers had lost the fight by failure to rise within the stipulated ten seconds.

Relief on the Ohio.

MT. VERNON, Ind., March 20.—The Red Cross relief force, on board their steamer Throop, are here, and are receiving the highest commendation along the Ohio river for their work. The force is composed of efficient men and women from several branches of the Red Cross association, and are thoroughly earnest in their work. Very large quantities of hay, lard, corn and other supplies are being distributed.

As Likely As Not.

LONDON, March 20.—At a club dinner Lord Derby, liberal conservative, remarked that it would perhaps have been better if England had never intervened in Egyptian affairs. The establishment of a sound condition in that country had required a longer time than had been expected. Events had been more powerful than men.

Adieu, Larry Barrett.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Mr. Lawrence Barrett, accompanied by his wife and two daughters sailed for Liverpool on board the Cunard steamship Gallia. Mr. Gerrie Davidson and Mrs. Davidson and Mr. Charles Hawthorne were with Mr. Barrett and his family. A number of theatrical and society celebrities were present on the wharf before the steamer sailed, to bid farewell to the actor and his friends.

Gone to the Baltimore and Ohio.

BOSTON, March 20.—Alderman E. F. Leighton, for thirteen years night manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, has resigned and accepted the Boston management of the Baltimore & Ohio company.

CLOSING THE CASE.

The Trial of Carpenter for Zura Burns' Murder Nearly Ended.

Summary of the Last of the Testimony---The Arguments Begun---A Colossal Swindle Unearthed---Tilter's Partner Suicides.

PETERSBURG, Ills., March 20.—The various theories and sensational reports clustering about the Zura Burns murder will be solved shortly by the jury, who have been for over eight days listening to a great volume of testimony. One hundred and thirty witnesses have been examined. Of this number seventy-seven were introduced by the state, and sixty-two for the defense. A great many more were subpoenaed, but the action of the prosecution in releasing Mrs. Rebecca Carpenter, of Decatur, from appearing on the stand avoided a long and tedious process of impeachment. The agreement of opposing counsel as to the hour the girl's throat was cut caused the discussion of the rigor-mortis theory to drop out. From a review of the testimony, it appears that the accused became intimate with the girl. The most potent testimony to establish this was the walks and drives the defendant indulged in with her, the existence of a correspondence between them, and the visit and communion at the Peoria house. The prosecution established the presence on the streets of Lincoln Sunday night, Oct. 14, of a horse and buggy resembling that of Carpenter. The weak part in this testimony was the failure of the prosecution to identify the occupant of the buggy. The defense failed to disprove the evidences of the intimacy, the existence of the correspondence, and the important fact that Carpenter's horse and buggy were on the streets on that particular night.

The attorneys for the defense closed with the evidence of Carpenter's household that he was at home on the night of the murder, proof of the waywardness of the murdered girl, and her illicit relations with Carter, the Illinois Central train boy, and the testimony of a number of respectable citizens of Logan county as to Carpenter's good reputation.

The arguments began at 2:30. During the remarks of Col. Lynch, which were of a pathetic nature, the defendant exhibited the first signs of weakness, and completely broke down. The faces of Carpenter, his wife, mother, daughters, and lady friends were suffused in tears. When Mr. Branson began his argument for the state, Mrs. Carpenter and her lady friends left the room. Mr. Branson dwelt on the motive which actuated the crime.

Big Swindle Unearthed.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—The News-Journal publishes a lengthy expose of a swindle which the postoffice authorities designate as the colossal swindle of the age, carried on through the mails, its victims being in all parts of the country. For a long time the following advertisement has been inserted in hundreds of weekly papers all over the country:

Life loans at 4 per cent.; principal never to be paid so long as interest is kept up. No security is required, except for interest, and then only personal. These loans are for poor men of moderate means, in amounts of $10 and $500, for life. Send 4 cents for particulars. W. Roberts, manager, 195 West Fifth street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

On receipt of two stamps a circular was sent, explaining that money was loaned only to subscribers to The Ledger, a small weekly paper, cheaply gotten up for the occasion, from the surplus profits arising from the immense lists expected. The victim at once subscribed, and on making application for a loan was asked for more stamps, and finally sent a blank note, which he was to sign and return before receiving the money. This done the swindlers had received about $1.25 in cash and stamps for almost nothing, and made no further replies. Complaint being made to the chief of police, a reporter ferreted the matter out. The returns have been simply enormous so far. The principal swindlers are Guy Webber, of Cincinnati, and one Roberts. Webber has been engaged in a number of swindles of a like character.

EMORY'S LITTLE CATHARTIC PILLS are sufficiently powerful for the most robust yet the safest for children and weak constitutions.—15 cents.

Lifted Up

A happy surprise it was to Mr. A. R. Norton, of Bristol, Conn., when ATHLOPHOROS put him on his feet, and sent him cheerfully about his business. Let him tell his own story:

"About three weeks ago I was taken with a severe crick in the back. For four days I was unable to turn in bed without help, and when lifted up could not stand on my feet. I was induced to try ATHLOPHOROS, after all the usual remedies failed. In 20 minutes after taking the first dose I could bear my weight upon my feet. In two days I was able to get about and attend to business. In two other cases which have come to my knowledge its use has been attended with the same results."

A poor man in Philadelphia had to borrow a dollar to buy a bottle of ATHLOPHOROS. On account of his poverty his name shall remain a secret. He had suffered terribly from Rheumatism. He gratefully writes:

"I took my first dose Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday, after but seven doses, I had not a sharp or severe ache left. Then I reduced the dose one-half and took the remainder of the bottle. I was able to be steady at work till Saturday, when I took a severe cold and was unable to use my left hand. I purchased another bottle and by bedtime I found relief. The medicine is all you claim for it."

Investigate ATHLOPHOROS all you please! Find all the fault you choose with it! and yet the fact remains, that it is doing what no other medicine ever could do for Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

IN NEUTRAL TINTS.

The House Concludes Not to Finish the Lasker Job in Red.

A Mild Debate and the Matter Settled---Incidents in Congress---Retaliatory Legislation---Postal Telegraph---Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—The Lasker complication was disposed of in the opinion of a large majority of the house by the adoption of the temperate resolutions framed by the committee on foreign affairs. A respectable minority, including Hiscock of New York, Bolford of Colorado, Reagan of Texas, Guenther of Wisconsin and Cox of New York, entered their protest, either by votes or speeches, against the conservative action proposed by the committee, which they regarded as equivalent to an apology to the German chancellor for having dared to condole with the German nation upon the death of Dr. Lasker. Ochiltree, of Texas, made himself the central figure by a set speech against the proposed resolutions. Being his maiden speech in the house, there was great curiosity to hear him, and it had been expected that he would proceed at once to scalp Bismarck and declare war against imperialism. But he not only spoke well, but was much more moderate than some others on that side of the question. The speaker's gavel cut him off in the midst of a sentence, and he asked for an extension of time, but Taylor, of Ohio, objected. Ochiltree looked around among his Republican friends and fiercely exclaimed: "Who objects?" A Democrat then arose and objected, and the discussion was taken up by Curtin, of Pennsylvania; Deuster, of Wisconsin, and Phelps, of New Jersey, in support of the committee. Phelps drew a crowd about him in the center of the aisle, where he stood with his hands in his coat pockets, and in a semi-confidential way related the story of the Lasker incident the discreet action of the secretary of state, the apology of Bismarck to the reichstag, and the action of the committee. Cox, of New York, essayed to lead the extremists, but was easily defeated, and the Lasker affair was soon ended, so far as the house of representatives is concerned.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

Resolved, That the resolution referring to the death of Dr. Lasker, adopted by this house on Jan. 9 last, was intended as a tribute of respect to the memory of an eminent foreign statesman, who had died within the United States, and an expression of sympathy with the German people, of whom he had been an honored representative.

Resolved, That this house, having no official concern with the relations between the executive and legislative branches of the German government, does not deem it requisite to its dignity to criticise the manner of the reception of the resolution, or the circumstances preventing its reaching its destination after it had been communicated through the proper channel to the German government.

The Other Man's Ox.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—During a debate in the senate on the bill to fix the salaries of United States district judges at $5,000 a year, Saulsbury opposed the measure on the ground that many of the judges did not fairly earn that sum. He expressed himself opposed to extravagant salaries and appropriations. There was no reason why the salaries of those judges should be uniformly raised to the salary of a United States senator.

"This year," said Ingalls, "we assembled on the 5th of December, and we may be here until the 1st of August. Last year we assembled in December and adjourned on the 4th of March. Would the senator make any discrimination in the compensation we are to receive on account of the number of days during which we are actually engaged?"

"We may not be here all the time," answered Saulsbury, "but we are still United States senators, doing the public business as best we can."

"Well," retorted Ingalls, "the district judges are judges all the year."

Williams said the country viewed with apprehension the tendency shown to increase salaries. The ability or efficiency of officeholders did not increase when their pay was raised, and none of those judges had resigned because of the inadequacy of his salary.

"Would the senator resign," asked Hoar, "if our compensation was reduced to $4,000 per annum?"

"Certainly not" replied Williams promptly; "that is another question (laughter). These judges rarely die and never resign, and when in the providence of God one is called to his last account, there are forty applications for the vacant place."

A Blow for American Hog.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Mr. Miller, from the committee on foreign relations, reported to the senate an original bill containing legislation to protect American interests against those governments which have prohibited or restrained the importation of meats from the United States. The report accompanying the bill recites that trichina exists to a limited extent, in swine throughout all swine producing countries, and in the United States as well as others, but to a less degree than in Germany or France. "The evidence," it says, "shows that about 2 per cent. of American pork is infected by trichinæ." The bill submitted proposes to institute at the principal ports of the United States a system of inspection of salted pork intended for exportation, and exported within sixty days next after the date upon which the same may have been salted and packed; authorizes the president, at his discretion, to exclude from the United States by proclamation any product of any foreign state which, by unjust discrimination, prohibits the importation into such foreign state of any product of the United States; prohibits, under proper penalties, the importation of any adulterated or unwholesome food or vinous, spirituous, or malt liquors, and authorizes the president, by proclamation, at his discretion, to suspend the importation of articles so adulterated from any country for such period of time as may be deemed sufficient to prevent the practice of such adulteration of articles intended for importation to the United States.

In the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—In the senate, the committee on foreign relations reported a bill for the inspection of meats for exportation, and prohibiting the importation of adulterated articles of food or drink. A memorial of the Cincinnati chamber of commerce, protesting against the construction of a bridge across the Kanawha, was presented. Some debate took place on bills to fix the salary of district judges at $5,000 and to appropriate $15,000,000 for the support of common schools.

In the house of representatives, the committee on foreign affairs reported that the resolutions on the death of Herr Lasker were intended as a tribute of respect to the memory of an eminent foreign statesman, and that the house does not deem it necessary to its dignity to criticise the circumstances which prevented the expressions of sympathy from reaching their destination. The report was adopted, as was also a resolution that the house cordially reciprocates the wishes of the Liberal union members of the German parliament for the closer union of the two nations. The bonded whisky bill was taken up in committee of the whole, by a vote of 137 to 118, and Messrs. Morrison and Willis urged its passage. Blackburn secured the floor for the day.

Postal Telegraphy Again.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Mr. George D. Roberts, representing the Postal Telegraph & Cable company, was heard by the subcommittee on postoffices and post-roads in charge of the various bills proposing the adoption of a system of postal telegraphy. Mr. Roberts submitted a form of contract, accompanied by the draft of a bill, looking to the handling of government business by the company he represented. He explained what he considered the advantages of the system adopted by the Postal company, and contrasted its limit of circuit with that of the Western Union company. From tests, already made, he was prepared to say that the limit of the Postal company's circuits was not less than 1,500 miles, which, according to Dr. Green's testimony, was 1,000 miles greater than that of the Western Union company's circuits. Mr. Roberts briefly advocated the adoption of the proposition advanced by his company, and said the only concession asked from the government was the privilege of establishing telegraph offices in postoffice buildings.

Wanted Watterson Bounced.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—While the question of consideration of the whisky bill was before the committee of the whole house, White of Kentucky, created considerable excitement by insisting that the committee rise to permit him to present a question of high privilege. He charged that a member of the whisky ring was on the floor, although he had registered his name as an ex-member and certified that he had no interest in pending legislation, and that two days after signing that certificate he appeared before the ways and means committee as an advocate of this bill. He also saw on the floor the editor of The Louisville Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky., the place where this whisky pill was born. His point of order was overruled, and his voice of continued protest drowned by cries of "Order! order!"

Not Willing to Trust Them.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—During the session of the senate Blair's bill for the temporary assistance of popular education came up, and the discussion having been concluded, and no further amendment being offered, the bill was about to be reported to the senate, when Sherman urged its postponement and pointed out a number of objections to the measure; then continuing, he said: "I am not prepared to vote to the southern states money out of the public treasury unless there are better signs than I see at present that these states are willing to respect the rights of citizens of the United States. I am not satisfied that if this money were placed in their hands it would be used for the education of all classes, black and white.

Civil Service Reform.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Congressman Phelps was asked by a correspondent: "What is the condition of the civil service matter?" and answered: "The committee by the solid vote of both parties, recently agreed to change the law, making a limited term of office and turning out the employe every four years. That proposition takes away from the civil service its last element of weakness."

The Fast Mail Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Postmaster General Gresham, who has returned, says that the new fast mail will not cost more than was paid for the old mail facilities, and that so far it is highly satisfactory to the postoffice department and to the public.

Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 20.—Gen. and Mrs. Grant have taken quarters at the Arlington hotel, and will remain here for a month. The Swedish doctor who is treating Gen. Grant here expects to have him able to walk with ease by another week, and until that time nothing of social entertainment will be arranged in honor of the ex-president.

Mr. Emery Storrs, who is working up an opposition to the passage of the pleuro-pneumonia bill, said that his success was very gratifying. He will be joined by Messrs. Elmer Washburn and Nelson Morrison of Chicago, and T. C. Eastman and J. C. Butcher of New York, who will supplement his previous labors in this direction.

The Dubuque National bank of Dubuque, Iowa, has been authorized to commence business, with a capital of $100,000.

Against Tobacco and Whisky.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 20.—In the Methodist convention being held in this city, the report of the committee on temperance, which was read, contained a number of resolutions to the effect that the licensing of the sale of liquor should be totally prohibited by the state; also favoring the advocacy of a constitutional amendment, which shall prohibit the manufacture of intoxicants as beverages in this commonwealth. The report as presented was adopted. A resolution was also read to the effect that inasmuch as candidates to the Methodist ministry are now required to answer affirmatively the question that they will refrain from the use of tobacco, therefore any present members of the conference who are addicted to the use of the obnoxious weed will in future join the others in abjuring tobacco in all its forms. A very heated discussion followed, but the resolution was finally adopted as read.

Got His Property Back.

BALTIMORE, March 20.—On May 31, 1882, Ernault H. Williams, the son of the Hon. George H. Williams, and brother of Miss Rebecca Williams, whose recent engagement to Mr. Herbert, of Muckross, Ireland, caused a flutter in society circles, conveyed to his father by deed of trust his entire estate, valued at $200,000. Recently, Ernault entered suit against his father for the recovery of his property, setting forth that when the deed was executed he (Ernault) was drunk, and that it was only after persistent urging that he signed the conveyance. The case was on trial for several days, and was concluded last week, since which time it has been held sub curia, until now, Judge Fisher having just filed his decision in favor of Ernault H. Williams, setting aside the deed of trust on the ground that the plaintiff was irresponsible at the time of signing.

Irishmen Proposing More Explosions.

PARIS, March 20.—The speeches made at a banquet on the celebration of St. Patrick's day at Belleville, a suburb of Paris, contained hints that more explosions would occur before long. The ranks of dynamiters, it is said, are being recruited by large accessions from the Irish in Paris, as they have become convinced it would be impossible to face England on the battle-field.

Reinforcements Wanted.

MADRID, March 20.—The governor of Berber has sent a demand for troops, accompanied by the statement that unless they are dispatched at once communication with Berber will be entirely cut off.

The Doctor's Endorsement.

Dr. W. D. Wright, Cincinnati, Ohio, sends the subjoined professional endorsement: "I have prescribed DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS in a great number of cases and always with success. One case in particular was given up by several physicians who had been called in for consultation with myself. The patient had all the symptoms of confirmed Consumption—cold night sweats, hectic fever, harrassing coughs, etc. He commenced immediately to get better and was soon restored to his usual health. I found DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS the most valuable expectorant for breaking up distressing coughs and colds.

The M. E. Church South.

BALTIMORE, March 20.—At the session of the M. E. Church South, the general statistics of the conference for the year ending, showed the following figures: Local preachers, 110; church membership, 32,435; number of churches, 392; probable value, $801,050; number of parsonages, 91; amount raised for building and improvement, $16,-806; present indebtedness, $7,165.

Horribly Burned.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 20.—Henry Johnson, colored, brass moulder at Oswald's foundry, lower market, was horribly burned with molten brass. While pouring the fluid metal in the mould it suddenly exploded, burning into his arms and chest, and destroying the sight of both eyes. It is thought he cannot recover.

Frightful Accident in Paris.

PARIS, March 20.—An explosion of benzine set fire to the third floor of a feather shop in Rue Grand Truanderie, preventing the escape of the occupants of the upper floors except by the windows. Fifteen girls jumped to the ground, all of whom were seriously and some fatally injured.

Will Try Conciliation.

LONDON, March 20.—It is announced that the government intends to adopt conciliatory measures in dealing with the rebels in Soudan, and will at once send an eminent officer to the camp of Osman Digma to negotiate for terms of peace.

Chronic Diseases.

A Special Study for Years.

Dr. F. B. BREWER

Has made Chronic Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach. Liver, Kidneys, Nerves and Blood.

A special treatment for years. He is not a boastful, ignorant pretender, but an educated physician, seeking to do good, by devoting his talent and energies to the treatment of a class of maladies that have been with him a long and patient study. To be able to treat successfully chronic diseases it requires that a physician should be a sound, thorough scholar in the art of science and medicine generally. He should give his entire time to their study, be thorough in his investigations and have a long and varied experience. Dr. Brewer claims to work no wonders or to do any more than any well educated physician can do, who devotes his whole time to the study and treatment of chronic diseases exclusively, and has had his many years' of experience. For years Dr. Brewer has visited the the places he now visits, and has obtained his reputation by being honest in his dealings, candid in opinions and reasonable in his charges. Those who are afflicted are invited to call, investigate and decide for themselves. It will cost nothing to do so. Address all letters to Burnside's Boyhood.

[Ben: Perley Poore.]

Gen. Burnside and Senator Morton, when they were boys, were apprentices in the little village of Liberty, Ind. Burnside in a tailor's shop, and Morton in a hatter's. One day the Hon. Caleb B. Smith, then the representative in the federal congress from that district, was about to start on an electioneering tour when he discovered that there was a rent in his coat. Stepping into a tailor's shop to have it mended, he found no one there but young Burnside, who was stitching away on a coat while he was attentively studying a volume of "Cooper's Tactics," which he propped up by a "goose," and kept open by a pair of shears.

Questioning the young man the congressman was struck with his self-reliant confidence and the unflinching look with which he returned his gaze, and an unknown influence prompted him to say: "You should be a cadet at West Point!" That remark changed the young tailor's destiny. He sought and obtained an appointment to West Point, but he never forgot the neat and trim habits of the tailor's shop.

What It Lacks.

[Somerville Journal.]

Modern invention has produced a mechanical doll that can cry like a baby. But it can't smile and crow and kick up a pair of pink heels and say pa, and there's where the truly baby has the advantage of it.

Carry the News.

In your days of biliousness, when your liver is torpid and your skin yellow, remember you have a never-failing friend in Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which is unequaled in purity and efficaciousness. In cases of dyspepsia, costiveness, ague and malarial diseases, and disease of the blood and kidneys, its action is prompt and cure speedy. Price 50 cents, of Stearns & Baker.

Origin of Hash.

[Chicago News.]

Prof. Butler of Milwaukee, says the cooks of ancient Athens had a fashionable dish that they called "Lopadotemachoselachogaleokranioleipsanodrimupotrimmatrsilphioparaomelitokatakechumenokichlepikossuphophattoperisteraiektruonoptekephalliokingklopeliolagooshiraiobaphetraganopterugon." We have it from private sources that this name was discontinued by royal order soon after Theseus took the throne. It happened in this wise: When Theseus came back from his bull-fight with the minotaur he naturally strolled into a restaurant in the basement of the Pantheon and asked for a plate of the fashionable dish. Before the waiter had time to pronounce the word the king was almost starved to death. He had just strength enough left to draw his anti-stylographic pen from his vest pocket, and write a royal order in these words: "Henceforth and forever let lopadotemach—etc. be called hash, under penalty of death." The order has never been revoked.

The Same Man.

[Exchange.]

A Massachusetts man recently put a bullet into the kitchen clock, supposing that he was shooting a burglar. He is the same man who smacked a string of onions hanging on the wall one dark night, supposing that he was kissing the hired girl.

In the Pilot House.

"Yes, sir; this kind of work obliges a man to keep sober as a judge. Of all men in the world steamboat pilots and railroad engineers should let liquor alone. For on their clearness of sight and coolness depends the safety of life and property."

Keeping his hand on the wheel as he said this Mr. A. Brockman, of No. 29½ Silver street, Chicago, added: "Of course, some of 'em drink; but the sober ones have the best positions and the best pay. Yes, the work and exposure sometimes tells on us; but for my part, I find PARKER'S TONIC to be all the invigorant I need. I've got a bottle aboard here now; never go on a trip without it. When I haven't any appetite or am in any way out of sorts, it sets me up in no time. If drinking men would use the Tonic it would help 'em to break off. (No, that isn't a light-house; it's a star, low down near the water.) As I was saying, the Tonic is new life bottled up. You see that flagstaff? Well, with a bottle of PARKER'S TONIC in the locker I can keep malaria as far from me as that, all the time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant, when she's tired out from overwork, she says the Tonic is a daisy. Good-bye! Don't break your neck going below."

This preparation, which has been known as PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, will hereafter be sold simply under the name of PARKER'S TONIC. As unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior articles under the name of ginger, and as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, we drop the misleading word.

THERE IS NO CHANGE, HOWEVER, IN THE PREPARATION ITSELF, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, contain the genuine medicine if the fac-simile signature of Hiscox & Co. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.

STOMACH BITTERS

THE WANT OF A RELIABLE DIURETIC

Which, while acting as a stimulant of the kidneys, neither excites nor irritates them, was long since supplied by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This fine medicine exerts the requisite degree of stimulation upon these organs, without producing irritation, and is, therefore, far better adapted for the purpose than unmedicated excitants often resorted to. Dyspepsia, fever and ague, and kindred diseases, are all cured by it.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. Briefiets.

—Now let the canvas proceed.

—The military companies drill tonight.

—The high license men hold their caucuses this evening.

—Charles Atwood & Co.'s ice wagon was out delivering ice to-day.

—Janesville Chapter No. 5, R. A. M., occupy Masonic hall this evening.

—The young folk's waltzing-club will meet at Apollo hall, to-morrow evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Metcalf returned from Washington, D. C., last evening.

—Prof. W. C. Whitford, president of Milton college, was a welcome caller at our office last evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball, who have been spending a few days in Chicago, returned home this afternoon.

—Hi Henry, as a cornet soloist ranks with the two great stars, Levy and Arbuckle. Some prefer him to either the above.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Dann, of Chicago, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Patterson, of the second ward.

—The city election takes place one week from next Tuesday, being the first day of April. See the official notices in another colum.

—The republican city committee has issued a call for the republican convention to meet on Thursday afternoon of next week. The ward caucuses will be held on Wednesday evening, —The Hi Henry minstrel troupe is one of the best organization on the road, and are highly spoken of by the press and public wherever they have appeared. They will occupy the opera house on Monday evening.

—Mrs. A. A. Dresser, of Lisbon, Dakota, is in the city on a brief visit, being on her return trip home from Chicago, where she had been to attend the funeral of her father. Her niece, Miss Gertie Morris, will accompany her to Dakota.

—The wife of Rev. W. T. Miller, of Hart Prairie, died on the 19th inst, and will be buried at Milton to-morrow, Friday, at 3 o'clock p. m., sermon to be preached in the M. E. church by Presiding Elder Lugg, of this city.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rubin, North Bluff street, second ward, was made happier yesterday afternoon by the arrival of a handsome baby boy and a little girl baby likewise enlivened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knipp, of the first ward.

—There was a very large attendance at Prof. Severance'a dancing school last evening, and, as usual on these weekly visits of the professor, every one was glad to see him and he them. The professor has many friends in Janesville who are glad to hear that his social gatherings will be continued in this city for some time to come.

—Horse thieves are again making their appearance in this city. Last evening, about eight o'clock, some one stole Dr. Loomis' horse and buggy, which he left in front of his office. It was soon missed, and the officers notified; and after an hour's search, they succeeded in finding the horse and buggy hitched near the residence of Mr. Comstock, in the first ward. No trace of the thief was obtained.

—The pile driver is now at work in the rear of Captain Norcross' River street block, putting down piling along the river line of the captain's lots. It is rumored that these piles are to be the foundation for the Farmers' mill, which will be removed as soon as the foundation is completed, and that it is the intention of Captain Norcross to build a brick block on the present site of the mill, and two stores fronting on Milwaukee street.

—A saloon keeper was evidently in the wrong pew last evening, when he undertook to address the high license meeting, objecting to so many high license men being placed upon the committee. He was somewhat taken back when the chair informed him of the object for which the meeting was held, and did not again press his objection to any appointments, but looked on as a spectator and wondered what the meeting would finally do with the liquor traffic. He will probably find out on election day.

—The high license meeting held last evening, has caused the political caldron to boil over to-day. The action of the meeting is the universal topic of conversation to-day. There seems to be a feeling that the movement is for some other purpose—to further the political aspirations of some who have been thrown overboard by the parties, and this means adopted in retaliation. The true results will be more clearly seen when the nominations are all made.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. G. W Lawrence was held at All Souls church this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. H. Slade, of Whitewater, conducting the solemn service. The attendance of sympathizing friends was quite large. The song service was beautifully rendered by a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Prichard and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Church, with Miss Julie Wilson as accompanist. The remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment. Messrs. S. B. Kenyon, Jerome Howland, Volney Atwood, Fred Koeblin, and Wm. M. Hatch, acting as pall bearers.

—The high license committee held a meeting in the council chamber this afternoon. It is not known what action the committee took in placing a ticket in the field. It is said on the streets that the members of the committee were not all present, and that some of them refused to act. In fact there are several rumors afloat, but perhaps all are mere imagination. What the committee thought they would gain by excluding newspaper men is only known to themselves.

The Public Meeting and High License.

Those who are in favor of abolishing party lines this spring in nominating and electing city and ward officers, met at the council chamber last night, and made arrangements to hold ward caucuses this evening which shall name candidates for ward officers, and it also provided a committee to select a city ticket which shall be reported to another public meeting held this evening. There was not much enthusiasm last night, neither was there a full representation of the leading business men of both parties. Several prominent republicans and democrats were present and took part in the proceedings, but the wheel-horses of the parties, and many others well known as ward and city workers were absent, which indicates that the movement has not the warm support of either party.

It would not be fair to impugn the motives of those who have shouldered the responsibility to inaugurate a movement toward high saloon license in Janesville. They are men of good repute and desire that the license for selling liquors shall be so increased that the number of saloons shall be materially reduced from the present large number, and at the same time to confine the selling of liquor to the more respectable class engaged in that business. There are a great many very candid and thinking men of both parties who are in favor of a much higher license than $75 but they question the efficacy of the present movement to bring about the reform demanded.

It will be a fair statement to make without doing violence to the feelings of any democrat, to say that as a rule, here and elsewhere, a majority of republicans are in favor of high license, while a majority of democrats are opposed to it. This statement is endorsed by the action of our state legislature one year ago, and by the votes of the various city councils in this and in other states. The effect of this is, where a high license ticket is placed in the field and is not endorsed fully by the two parties, that it weakens the republican strength, and the democrats, being less independent and more bound to party, succeed in defeating their opponents and thereby feast on political turkey and compel the republicans to dine on owl. If the democrats and the republicans would join forces and vote the high licen ticket, there would be a happy issue out of the difficulty and high license would prevail. But the sentiment of the democratic party is largely against any such a compromise, and many republicans are opposed to making that the sole issue in the local canvass under circumstances which place the odds against them. However, if the high license men select strong, representative business men—men of sterling honor—it is probable that some of them will be endorsed by the other parties, which will, of course, ensure their election.

The Gazette is in favor of a much higher license than is now paid in this city, and it is also in favor of cutting down the number of saloons very much below fifty-five. Many that were licensed during the past year should not have been licensed at all. The Gazette is also happy to say that the sentiment of the council on this subject is very much changed since last spring. One democratic alderman, especially, now believes in confining the sale of liquors to the more respectable men engaged in that business, and he sees that this can only be done by increasing the license fee. It is the hope of a majority of the voters of Janesville that this discussion of high license will have the effect to bring about that reform which is much needed and which will be an honor and a triumph to the moral sentiment of the city.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 34 degrees above zero Partly cloudy with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 55 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 2 and 25 degrees above zero.

HIGH LICENSE.

The Mass Meeting Held Last Evening.

Some of Our Prominent Citizens Speak Their Views.

An Adjourned Meeting To Be Held This Evening.

The high license meeting held in the common council room last evening, was attended by about one hundred and twenty-five citizens, many, if not a majority, being opposed to the movement, who had dropped into the meeting as spectators. The meeting, however, on the part of its friends, was composed of some of our most prominent and highly respected citizens, some of whom rolled up their sleeves and expressed themselves on the high license question without an "if" or an "and." Yet they were few, and the meeting lacked in enthusiasm, as well as in numbers, although the latter objection was excused on account of the stormy night.

Ex-Mayor J. B. Doe called the meeting to order, stating that he was ready to vote for any man, no matter to which party he belonged, who favored high license. He thought it was a burning shame for our city to grant license in the way we were doing, and would give the high license movement his earnest support.

Mr. Clarence L. Clark moved that ex-Mayor Pliny Norcross be elected chairman of the meeting, which was adopted and Mr. Norcross took the chair. Mr. Norcross thanked the meeting for the honor of being selected to preside over their deliberations, and gave the assembly a good high license lecture, hoping that they would drop all party ties and work together for the interests of the city not only for high license, but for improvements in the city, such as the improvement of our highways. He did not forget to give the authorities a clever hit for the almost unbearable stench pervailing in the council room, caused by the unventilated stable in the lower room.

On motion of Mr. J. C. Rexford, Mr. Clarence L. Clark was elected secretary of the meeting.

Mr. A. M. Valentine wished to contradict a report he had heard on street, that this was a "snap game" on the part of the democrats to defeat the republicans, and explained why he identified himself with this movement. He wanted a ticket nominated, composed of our best men, who would act for the best interests of the city, especially on the high license question, and had no desire to play a "snap game" on any one.

The speech of the evening was made by Mr. J. B. Doe, Jr. He evidently was in earnest and meant what he said, and said what he meant. Mr. Doe's remarks were of such a nature as to be uncontradictory, and they were received with considerable applause. He said:

I am glad to be able to meet you all, my fellow citizens, upon the broad foundation of a common principle. I am most heartily and earnestly in favor of this movement for a higher license. We have in this city at present some fifty-five saloons, from which Rock county derives a revenue of $2,600, the city of Janesville, $1,300. Beloit has twelve saloons, from which the county gets $600, the city $6,000. Rockford has over thirty saloons, each of which pays a license fee of $600, into the city treasury. Elgin has twenty saloons, a $500-license fee, and thus receives a revenue of $10,000. In none of those places can one discover any public sentiment in favor of a return to the low license system. Again, a result of our low, and our neighbor's high license system, is that the disreputable and impecunious saloon keepers of those towns, unable to get or keep a license there, flock in upon us. This is shown by the fact, of an increase of eight in the number of saloons here over last year, and none of the new ones first class places. When we stop to think that we are supporting more than one saloon to every two hundred men, women and children in this city, the situation appears disgraceful. This is admitted on all hands. Let us then do something to improve it. Let us cast aside party questions, and party harness, and uniting, not as republicans and democrats, but as good citizens having the best interests of our beautiful city at heart, place in nomination for city offices men of ability and integrity who are in favor of raising the license fee and of enforcing the law, and let us vote for them without regard to their political complexion.

This is not and can not be at this time a political question. The question is, Shall our city, of which we are so justly proud, continue in the front rank of the army of civilation, or shall we allow her to fall to the rear and to come halting along covered with dust and dirt, the object of derision and sneers. I say for one, let us keep up with the procession.

The more a man pays for a thing the more he values it, and the greater pains he will take not to lose it. If the license fee were raised and a board of aldermen elected who were elected with a view to enforcing the liquor laws, we should see no little boys from ten to fourteen years of age staggering about the streets in a maudlin state of intoxication or lying in the gutters, and alleys beastly drunk, a sight, which, to the lasting disgrace of ourselves and our city government be it said, most of us have seen. We should see in short, in all respects, the laws better kept, our streets more peaceful, and less business for the criminal court. The adoption of this measure would also largely reduce our city taxes; if the license fee were raised to $150,-and the number of saloons reduced to forty, the city's revenue would be $4,000, instead of $1,300, it to $600, the city treasury would receive from twenty-five saloons, $11,250 income, and the county would receive $1,250, So, we see from all points of view, the theoretical and the practical, the economical and the sentimental, from principle and from interest, for honor and for gain. That the reputation and good name of our city and its citizens and the profit and self interest of our tax payers alike demand the adoption of this measure, let us all work to bring it about.

Mr. A. P. Bennett followed, and explained why he took an active part in the high license movement, and was now ready to work for any man pledged for a high license.

Ex-Mayor Henry Palmer was called for but the doctor said he had nothing to say.

The Chairman—Doctor, you are in favor of high license, are you not?

Dr. Palmer.—If I was not I should not be here. My record on that question is pretty well established.

Mr. William Street addressed the meeting favoring the movement, and pledging his support.

On motion of Mr. A. M. Valentine a committee of two from each ward, one republican and one democrat, was appointed, to select a city ticket, and report at an adjourn meeting to be held at the same place this evening. The committee appointed was

First ward—A. M. Valentine, Sila Hayner.

Second Ward—Thor Judd, A. C. Kent.

Third Ward—J. B. Whiting, A. P Lovejoy.

Fourth Ward—A. P. Bennett, C. L. Clark.

Fifth ward—Q. O. Sutherland, G. C. McLean.

On motion of Mr J. B. Doe, Jr., the above committee were constituted a ward committee, and instructed to call ward caucuses this evening, for the purpose of nominating ward officers, and that they be requested in all cases to so nominate the ticket that the political complexion of the council would not be changed.

The meeting then adjourned, until eight o'clock this evening.

Jennie Praeger, residing at corner of Commerce Street and Congreve avenue, New Haven, Conn., owes her life to a timely use of ATHLOPHOROS. Her letter reads: "I cannot thank you enough for the benefit derived from ATHLOPHOROS. Had rheumatism in every joint, and pain beyond description. Our physician's remedies were vain. Against his wish I tried ATHLOPHOROS. After two doses I felt a sense of relief through my system. Two bottles removed all pain and swelling. I am well, and have not felt a symptom of the terrible disease in four months. My friends were all surprised at the wonderful cure.

FIRE AT MILTON.

The Total Destruction of Lane's Flour Mills—Loss $11,000.

Special to the Gazette.

MILTON, March 20.—The most extensive fire that ever visited Milton, occurred this morning, W. H. Lane's flouring mill was totally destroyed by fire in thirty minutes from the time of its discovery. The alarm was given by the engineer of P. F. Rock's freight train at a few minutes before seven and he sounded his whistle for a few minutes briskly, but Mr. Lane thought, as did most of our citizens, that there was something on the track and did not know that his mill was on fire until a neighbor came in and informed him. When he reached the building there was no fire in the main room or engine room; but on bursting open the door of his tool room, found it all aflame, and in a few seconds the interior of the mill was all ablaze. Nothing was saved of any value, except a few sacks of flour. The mill complete cost Mr. Lane eleven thousand dollars, and had been fully refitted the present season with the roller system. He had no insurance whatever and was in debt beside, which puts him in a very bad shape, and the fire wiped out in a few minutes the hard earnings of a life time. He was cramped for means by putting in the roller system and had postponed putting any insurance on his mill for that reason, but had arranged to insure the first of next month. This fire is not only ruin for Mr. Lane but a great calamity to our town, and Mr. Lane deserves, and should receive promptly, liberal financial aid, either in the way of rebuilding the mill or to give mim a new start in life. The cause of the fire is not known. No one had been in the mill since the night before when the mill was running, and no fire had been started under the boiler as the mill was not to be run to-day.

A Temperate but Satisfying Drink

There has been of late years a demand for roasted coffee of the finest quality as to bouquet and strength in the cup. Dealers, in their efforts to supply this demand, have ordered all sorts of combinations, such as Mocha and Java, Marricabo and Java, &c., &c., without obtaining the elixir they sought. We take pleasure in informing our readers that after many years of search in the markets of the world, Messrs. Bell, Conrad & Co., the enterprising and reliable tea, coffee and spice men of Chicago, have secured a coffee that is a breakfast in itself. This coffee is their Plantation Java, which we take pleasure in recommending to our readers as the finest coffee grown, possessing strength and flavor, the two essentials of a perfect coffee. This Plantation Java is strictly a private growth, and by special arrangement Messrs. Bell, Conrad & Co. will control all that is grown. They guarantee the coffee to suit the most fastidious consumer or the money will be refunded.

All the leading grocers in Janesville carry the Plantation Java in stock. For sale by Conrad & Jones, W. T. Vankirk, Bull & Bates, W. F. Carle, Davies & Bro., S. Holdredge, Jr. Tarrant & Osgood.
